WIRL Information for Teachers & Students

What's It Really Like (WIRL) has a duty of care to students and business partners alike. WorkSafe has produced a series of videos, checklists, and flyers for use when young people commence work in (or visit) a workplace. Please feel free to share these with the students and their parents, as well as the participating businesses, if applicable.

- 01 Young workers: information for employers ▶
Good leadership helps protect young workers from illness and injury.
- 02 Talking to young workers about health and safety ▶
Young workers are more likely to value their health and safety when the people closest to them do.
- 03 Young workers: Mental health ▶
Work can have both positive and negative effects on mental health.
- 04 Young workers: Safety basics ▶
Protecting the health and safety of young workers is good for business.
- 05 Young workers vulnerable to workplace injuries ▶
Young workers are particularly vulnerable to workplace injuries and employers should prioritise safety discussions and training to reduce their risk of injury.
- 06 Young workers: Speaking up ▶
Speaking up about safety at work can help protect you and your workmates.
- 07 Students undertaking work experience ▶
Understand whether students undertaking work experience are considered workers for the purposes of WorkSafe.
- 08 Occupational violence and aggression: Safety basics ▶
Occupational violence and aggression (OVA) is any violence and aggression related to your work. It is unacceptable.
